

PRESS RELEASE

MARC FRAPPIER APPOINTED AS A MEMBER OF EURAZEO'S EXECUTIVE BOARD

Paris, April 27th 2021

On 27 April 2021, as proposed by Executive Board Chairwoman Virginie Morgon, the Supervisory Board appointed Marc Frappier to Eurazeo's Executive Board for the remainder of his current term of office, i.e. until March 2022.

Marc has been part of the Group's staff and management team for 15 years. He leads a team consisting of close to 30 professionals based in Europe and the United States, investing for Eurazeo's own account and for third-party investors in the mid-large buyout segment. With them, he has built a diversified portfolio with €4 billion of assets under management in the tech-enabled services, financial services, healthcare and consumer sectors. He has played an active role in Eurazeo's international expansion, particularly its development in China, Brazil and the United States.

Marc will bring to Eurazeo's Executive Board his investment expertise, his in-depth knowledge of the asset management market and his strong international experience in Europe, the United States and Asia. He will further strengthen what is already a solid team of experienced and complementary individuals and will help to accelerate Eurazeo's growth.

Virginie Morgon, CEO of Eurazeo, stated:

"I am pleased to welcome Marc Frappier to Eurazeo's Executive Board. We have been working closely together for almost 15 years now, and I know his rigor as an investor, his energy, his ability to innovate, his loyal and passionate commitment to the Group. Marc's appointment is a testament of his outstanding contribution to Eurazeo's transformation. I am very proud that Eurazeo's Executive Board can rely on the expertise of such a talented professional."
